Announcements and Kudos

Dr. Carol Mannings presented her scholarly work “Knowledge Assessment of Sport-related Concussion Among Caregivers of Children Ages 5-15 Years Enrolled in Recreational Tackle Football” at the Injury Free Coalition for Kids 2012 Annual Conference in Kansas City, MO, held November 9-11.

Dr. Robert Wears and Dr. Cynthia Leaphart were awarded a grant through the W. Martin Smith Interdisciplinary Patient Quality and Safety Award from the University of Florida’s Self-Insurance Program.

Dr. Joe Shiber has been elected to an At-Large position on the FL AAEM Board of Directors and was a speaker at the January FL AAEM Conference on Post-Cardiac Arrest Care.

Dr. Duran-Gehring and Dr. Nataly Saldana’s abstract, “FAST Wars: Assessing Competency and Speed in a Simulated Trauma Patient”, has been selected for poster / table presentation at the 2013 CORD Academic Assembly Advances in Education Research and Innovations Forum, March 7, 2013 in Denver, Colorado from 5:30 pm – 7:00 pm, Thursday, March 7, 2013.

Dr. Hendry served as an Abstract Reviewer for the 2013 CORD Academic Assembly.

On January 27th, an interdisciplinary SimWars competition took place in Orlando at the International Meeting for Simulation in Healthcare. Drs. Godwin and Jacobson and a team of physicians and nurses from around the country facilitated the event. Residents Ashley Doscher, MD and Kristin McKee, MD joined forces with Marsha Walker, RN and a student nurse from the Orlando area to compete. They represented us well, making it into the final round where they managed a simulated mass casualty incident.
Dr. Shiber recently attended the Society of Critical Care Medicine Congress where he was inducted as a Fellow of the American College of Critical Care Medicine (FCCM). The bylaws of this society only allow 10% of the members to have Fellowship status, and Dr. Shiber is one of fewer than 10 EM physicians ever elected. He attended several committee meetings as an officer, and made a presentation at a meeting on Career Development, and has also been an abstract reviewer for the research presentations.

Dr. Joseph’s abstract, "Knowledge Assessment of Caregivers of Young Soccer Players Regarding Sport Related Concussion" has been accepted for presentation at the 2013 Pediatric Academic Societies’ Annual Meeting, May 4-7, in Washington.

Dr. Hendry has been accepted into the 2nd cohort of the Academy of Research Excellence Master Certificate Program sponsored by UF’s Clinical and Translational Science Institute.

Selected for presentation at the American Pain Society Annual Meeting in New Orleans, LA May 8-11, 2013:
