MEAL CARDS

UF Health-Jacksonville provides meal funding for residents who are in the hospital beyond normal working hours. The meal card is loaded with the funding allocation by Food and Nutrition Services in June and will be distributed to the trainees no later than June 30th. The cards are valid July 1 through June 30 of each academic year. The cards may be used in all UF Health-Jacksonville food service locations.

If your initial meal allocation runs out, you may purchase your own meal card through the Kiosk in the Clinical Center Cafeteria using your credit/debit card. Money may be added to your card at any time through the Kiosk. (Please note that you cannot add additional money to the meal card initially provided to you by UF Health.)
